Special Bulb and Winter-Flowering Plant List.

A FEW HINTS ON THE CULTIVATION OF BULBS.

January to May are the most suitable months for planting out Flower Bulbs, to give a colourful and striking display to your garden in early Spring, at a time when other flowers are generally scarce.

Any good garden soil will grow bulbs; take care to use only well decayed manure. If none available, use bonemeal as a fertilizer. The average depth to cover from top of bulb to the surface is given after each variety. This depth varies with the texture of the soil. As a rule plant deeper in sandy than in heavy soils. A covering with leaf mould, sand or chaff is advisable, as it retains the moisture and keeps the soil open for the flower stem to break through.

Tulips, Begonias, Hyacinths, Cyclamen and Gloxinias are best planted in pots or tins, light rich soil (leaf mould) and well drained receptacles, are the two essentials; do not water too freely at first until the bulbs start growing, when shot out give more water as the growth advances.

Our bulbs are ready for sending out from January to May, when orders are executed. Should we be sold out of certain varieties ordered, we use our best judgment as to substituting other varieties, with due regard to your locality, but should our choice not appeal to you, you are at liberty to return same to us and your account will be credited with their value.

Postage is paid by us within the Union on all orders of 5/- and above in value. All Orders are accepted on the distinct understanding that it is expressly agreed that should any goods sold by us prove untrue to name and label, we undertake either to replace such individual articles by the true variety or refund the price paid therefor, and that no other or further liability for loss or damage directly or indirectly will rest on us.

BULB FIBRE, to be mixed with sand and soil, for planting bulbs in pots or tins. 9d. lb., 3 lbs. 2/- will be sent post free with bulbs if no bulbs are ordered the postage is 3d. per lb. or 6d. for 3 lbs.

GLADIOLII (SWORD LILY).

Our Gladiolii are unsurpassed for colourfull flowering effects.

They make attractive displays, planted either in beds, or grouped together on the lawn or in the perennial border. Will make a particularly fine showing, if planted in the foreground of some shrubbery, where they will provide a fine array of blooms against a background of green foliage. The blooms when cut and placed in water will fully expand and remain fresh for a considerable time. Gladiolii are of simple cultivation and thrive in any well dug up garden soil, plant two inches deep, if planted in January or February they will flower before the winter sets in and again the following spring.
